

Volume V: Issue 2 Fiscal Year 2010/11

We are pleased to provide you with the Fiscal Year 2010/11 issue of NOVA's Workforce Index for the city of Santa Clara. This biannual report presents a summary of the services that were provided to the residents and businesses of Santa Clara between July 2010 and June 2011, as well as a snapshot of workforce and demographic data for the city and region.

Although the cities of northern Santa Clara County continue to experience the challenges of a depressed economy and a mixed employment outlook, the NOVA Workforce Board remains committed to the City of Santa Clara and the entire Silicon Valley region. The Board's purpose of supporting workforce mobility by easing workers' transitions throughout the career cycle has never been more essential as Silicon Valley continues the transition from an age of manufacturing to one of innovation and increased entrepreneurism.

As the demands of the workforce and the business community shift, NOVA remains steadfast in its service to you and the Santa Clara community. It is with Santa Clara's support that we are able to effectively reach out to and support the thousands of job seekers in need of assistance. We are grateful for this support and look forward to continuing this collaborative relationship in the coming year.

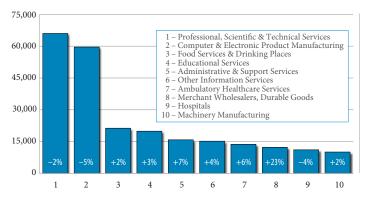

If you would like to learn more about NOVA, the services we provide, and the impact we have on your community, we invite you to contact us. We are, after all, your workforce investment board.

Developing a skilled workforce for Silicon Valley

About NOVA

NOVA is a nonprofit, federally funded employment and training agency that provides customer-focused workforce development services to job seekers and businesses throughout northern Santa Clara County. We work closely with local businesses, educational institutions, training providers, community-based organizations, and government to ensure that our programs provide opportunities that build the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary to address the unique workforce needs of Silicon Valley.

Services to job seekers and businesses include:

- One-stop resource center for job seekers
- Job-search & interviewing workshops
- Labor market research
- Youth@Work online job-listing site
- Pre-layoff assistance & outplacement services
- Staffing & recruitment
- Employee training & retention services
- Professional development programs

NOVA is directed by the NOVA Workforce Board, which works on behalf of a seven-city consortium composed of Cupertino, Los Altos, Milpitas, Mountain View, Palo Alto, Santa Clara, and Sunnyvale.

Purpose Statement

The purpose of NOVA is to support the mobility of the workforce by easing workers' transitions from opportunity to opportunity throughout the cycles of their careers. To advance transitions with economic sustainability, NOVA provides:

- advocacy for necessary infrastructure to support workers while unemployed between opportunities;
- navigation tools for the new labor market;
- just-in-time labor market information about the skills in demand;
- skill building and enhancements to match market demand; and
- interconnected support system for multiple career pathways for youth.
