

Emerging Trends Task Force
Meeting Agenda
Monday, May 6, 2019
12:00 Noon to 1:30 p.m.
Sunnyvale Room, Suite 620

Task Force Charter:

The charter for the Emerging Trends Task Force is to examine strategies to prepare for the future of work in order to translate that vision into opportunities for the current operation of programs and service-delivery. Defined work includes: Skills versus Credentials in the area of overcoming hiring bias and non-traditional backgrounds; Next Skills in the area of future skill requirements and contingent workforce; and Sector Strategies targeting IT and health care.

- I. Welcome and Review Agenda Task force chair Andy Switky (5 minutes)

- II. Review of Last Meeting Discussion Director Kris Stadelman (10 minutes)

- III. Landscape Analysis of Emerging Trends Community Activities Manager Luther Jackson (30 minutes)
 - Digital Promise
 - Intelligent Lives
 - Project Backyard
 - Apprenticeship Networks

- IV. Prototyping Ideas for Next Steps Task force members (30 minutes)

- V. Employer Conversation Series Task force members (10 minutes)
 - Host discussions with employers on possible topics: Intelligent Lives video, employing formerly incarcerated, future retirement of the workforce-succession planning and semi-work models, inventorying companies' existing skilled labor to fill future skill gaps, and from gig economy to gig workforce, etc.

- VI. Wrap-up and Next Steps Task force chair Andy Switky (5 minutes)
 - What are our next steps and what do we need to go forward?